

The Gold Minds Junior Great Books Grant Application

Made possible by generous support from GreenKarat.com

Gold Minds Grants for new Junior Great Books groups in schools and libraries are awarded on a first come first served basis, with the following stipulations:

-  Gold Minds grants are up to $1000 per school or site based on program size; grants are awarded only as funds are available; schools or libraries may reapply to expand or extend a program.
-  Gold Minds grants are credits to pay for Great Books leader training and for books and materials for students and leaders, including shipping, handling, and applicable taxes.
-  Gold Minds grants are for new non-curricular Junior Great Books groups only and preference may be given for programs that serve economically or academically disadvantaged students.
-  Teachers or volunteers must be able to attend available Great Books training to implement the program at the time funds are released.
